Dear Senior Colleagues,

I am delighted to invite you to the final Leadership Forum for 2009. This will be a great opportunity to hear Professor Ed Byrne reflect on his academic and organisational leadership journey, his first six months as Vice-Chancellor, and the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead for Monash University.

As you know, Professor Byrne is a pioneering neuroscientist, who has combined an active clinical career with an outstanding contribution to research and teaching into neuromuscular disorders, while also amassing impressive management and corporate sector experience. Professor Byrne became the eighth Vice-Chancellor at Monash University on 6 July 2009.
