and action by members of the University, and the Chancellor undertook to express the sense of the meeting to the Vice-Chancellor on his return. It was thought that the Committee of Deans might consider with the Vice-Chancellor whether the provisions of the Discipline Statute should be extended.

2.3. The Jock Marshall Zoology Reserve

Council noted with pleasure that before his death Professor Marshall had been told of a recommendation of the Naming of Buildings Committee that the Zoology Reserve should be named "The Jock Marshall Zoology Reserve". The recommendation of the Committee was approved.
